RAILROAD NOTELETS

Important Changes on the Burlington Route.

Local Notes of the Illinois Central Railroad—Many Items of Interest.

The Burlington Route's agent, Chas.
Johnson, November 1, 1900.

Mr. H. K. Smith, a prominent general agent at Louisville, is appointed as the general agent of the Burlington Route at St. Louis.

The position of assistant agent at St. Louis is a new one, and is a very important one, as it is the first of the Burlington Route in the Missouri river territory.

Mr. C. W. Alexander, now city passenger agent at Kansas City, is appointed as the general agent at St. Louis.

Mr. F. C. Stinson is promoted from chief rate clerk, general passenger office at St. Louis, to the position of city passenger agent at Kansas City.

Mr. John J. Shiner, of the Kansas City ticket office, is promoted to be city ticket agent at St. Louis.

The above appointments are made with strict regard to the service of passengers, as required generally by the employees of the Burlington Route.

Master Mechanic M. S. Glick left at 7:15 A. M. this morning for a tour of inspection of the Louisville district. He will stop at all points, and does not expect to be back for several days.

Trainmaster J. J. Flynn is at dayton, Tenn., attending court.

No trace has yet been discovered of the would-be train wreckers who received a call near Timber, Tenn., and then shot an old man who discovered them in time to prevent a wreck.

The Illinois Central is preparing to make extensive improvements on its trackage over Tennessee river and a large quantity of timbers and other material is being ordered there for use.

Tricker Agent George Wadford had a busy time of it yesterday. He was unable to discharge office from 1 p. m. until 2 a. m. on account of the number of out-of-town callers.

Engineer Hethel has resumed his duties between Paducah and Central City, after a several days' illness.

Chicago, Ill., October 12.—The Chicago Central is expected to resume the Central City accommodation run today or tomorrow, after a week's rest spent in Louisville. Conductor Jess Parnell is on the run now.

The appointment of chief clerk, a position now held by Mr. Chas. M. de la, has not been made, and probably will not be for a month or longer. When Superintendent Wadford was here he was asked how the acting chief clerk was getting along. It will doubtless be in this case as it was with the general foreman. The appointment will be made temporarily until the officials are satisfied that it is a good one, and will then be made permanent.

It is still uncertain when the dispatchers will be moved to the "A" office. The new building is about complete, but it seems to be the intention of the company to start everybody from there, when the new depot is built.

PROCLAMATION

The Proclamation of King Esahcrup I, to all the tribes in all his dominions to the South and West as far as the land of the Tennessee and to the North and East to the shores of the Mississippi and Ohio.

Be it known unto you all that after an absence of many years, which we have employed most diligently in the study of philosophy of the Lap-tians, in the lore of the Eutopians, and in the political economy of the Al-tians, it is our purpose to come once more unto our land and into our own people.

We hereby set apart the 26th and 27th Days of October, 1899 and the ninety-first year of our separation from the land of the Tennessee-ans, as days of thanksgiving and pleasure, and it is hereby commanded that our Satrap of the province of Calloway, our Satrap of the province of Marshall, our Satrap of the province of Graves, our Satrap of the province of Fulton, our Satrap of the province of Carlisle, our Satrap of the province of Hillard, our regents of the lands of Livingston and Lyon and our governor of Illinois that they cause this, our Proclamation, to be read to all our loyal subjects within their respective borders, and that they come up to our capital, the city of Paducah, on the aforesaid days, together with their wives and children, their maid servants and their man servants, their horses, their donkeys, their camels, and their beasts of burden to hold high festival.

We also command our secretaries of the interior, Honovan and Burnham, to arrange ways and means for the comfortable and expeditious transportation of these vast crowds. The King gives orders to his Viceroy Lang that all the ways be swept, rose odors be sprinkled in the streets, that the trees be hung with lamps and flags, that he allow the merry crowds to stand on the corners of the streets while they gaze at jugglers, charmers, sword players, the Nautch girls in their spangled skirts and bells that chime loud laughter around their restless feet, that he rebuke not masquers wrapped in skins of bear and deer, or tiger tamers, wrestlers, hunters of drums or twangers of the wire, who make the people happy by our command.

It is our royal will and pleasure that our trusted Admiral Fowler, of the Ohio squadron, shall have his vessels decked in holiday attire and pennantly at four bells on the morning of October 26 and north to meet our flagship. It is also our command that our noble Admiral Koger, of the Tennessee squadron, to whom has been assigned the care of our well-beloved queen, Autumnia, to display his battleships and cruisers in the harbor at our capital city and after the declaration of our royal escort to await our command.

It is also directed that our three loyal Viceroy Lang receive with all due respect her royal majesty, and with a suitable body guard conduct her to the palace and there await our coming. It is our further will and pleasure that the commander of the citadel cause to be unfurled above the palace our royal standard, that all our liege subjects may know of our presence within our favorite city and do it homage.

It is our desire that all dwellers in the land of the balsam and the pennyrill, all strangers and visitors within the gate of our loyal city shall join in the pomp and revelry, with merriment and antique pageantry.

Given under our hand and seal this, the 26th day of October, 5903.

ESAHCRUP I. REX.

Flagship Royal Ynnep.

Commander Hakudap.

THE VOTES INCREASE

Committees Are Hard at Work on the Approaching Celebration.

The carnival committee met again at the Palmer house last night and to the industrial parade committee were added Messrs. A. C. Atkins and Men-dall Johnson, of the Elks. Mr. John McNulty was appointed to see the batteries and others on the map and ascertain how many wanted floats.

The following establishments have been added to the list of those who will be represented in the parade and pageant.

Cut Off Facts.

A CONFLICT IS NOW ON

LONDON, Oct. 12.—A dispatch from Lady Smith confirms the reported Boer invasion of Natal. The Boers occupied Lamb's Nek as soon as the ultimatum time expired. They have also taken up a position on In-gers' Heights, in the Orange Free State. The Boers invaded Natal by way of Vaalreus Pass.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 12.—Premier Schreiner refused to sign Sir Milne's proclamation declaring all persons abetting the enemy would be guilty of high treason. He bases his objection on technical grounds.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—News of actual operations in South Africa continue scanty and contradictory. It is supposed the Boers intend to flank the British in Natal, getting behind their defenses. Charleston and New Castle may already be in the hands of the Boers.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—It is rumored the government intends to impeach several Irish members of parliament for high treason, in having given aid and comfort to the Transvaal. The rumor has caused a lively sensation.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 12.—In the assembly today Premier Schreiner made a last and impassioned plea for peace. Parliament adjourns today.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The Communist cable company issued a statement today that Natal announced military consent on all messages to and from Natal.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—A private message from Cape Town says the Free State Boers have crossed Orange river into Cape Colony and have occupied Philippus Wyn.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 12.—Bonyngton Green, the British agent at Port Natal, left there yesterday afternoon for Cape Town, after paying a formal visit of farewell to Kruger and the Transvaal officials.

MOVING AHEAD.

Americans Make Another Advance in the Philippines.

MANILA, P. I., Oct. 12.—The Americans today. General Young advanced and made a distinct advance in the city of Alay, when he encountered the enemy in force. They made a brief resistance, however, retreating toward Makabang. The Americans had one man wounded. Government soldiers have occupied Alay.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—All doubt that the American troops in Luzon are determinedly fighting for Agui-naldo was removed in the opinion of the war department officials by the following received this morning from General Dug: "Schwan's column is moving on Sabán and Dasmariñas today, where opposition is expected.
Column of five hundred men is marching from Iba to support Schwan if necessary. Young, at the north, occupied Arayat and supplies are being moved up Rio Grande by Cascoes to that point. Lawton will command the column when full concentration is effected. Young's loss today, one enlisted man wounded yesterday. Insurgents attacked the Angeles line, but were quickly repulsed. Six enlisted men slightly wounded."

SCHLEY TO AFRICA

Admiral and His Flagship Ordered to Cape Town.

American Interests in the Transvaal Are to be Protected—Sails October 25.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Rear Admiral Schley and his flagship, the Chicago, have been ordered to Cape Town, South Africa, the start to be October 25 or later. The object of the order is to observe as much as possible the operations of the war should occur.

The cruiser Montgomery, another of the vessels of Schley's command, will go also to South Africa. She is now at Pernambuco, Brazil, and will start immediately after the outbreak of hostilities.

Sir and Lieutenant Benjamin W. Wells will be assigned to Schley's staff as flag lieutenant and flag secretary, respectively. They held the same positions in the war with Spain.

Admiral Schley was informed that it will require two weeks to put the Chicago in shape for her cruise, so it was arranged that she should sail on the 25th inst.

Admiral Schley has arranged to pay a visit to friends in Georgia.

Rear Admiral H. M. Foulger will hoist his flag on the New York and assume command of the North Atlantic squadron in Hampton roads next Saturday.

THURSDAY, OCT. 12, 1899.

England and Germany are preparing for the partition of another continent—this time the Antarctic continent.

Bryan has not yet started for Kentucky. He has time, however, to do so and he has time also to declare that he is to the Paducah often get sick when it is wise to be indisposed.

The visiting Old Fellows have left us. They left behind many new friends and no doubt took away with them pleasant memories. The local brethren and themselves credit in the way they entertained their guests.

Goebel papers are endeavoring to put the Brown faction on the defensive, by charging all manner of things. They hope in this way to detract the attention of the public from their rotten record and rotten work.

Every someone Goebel, when he is compelled to tell of the faults he holds counts above on "the king's" election because of the Goebel election bill. "The machine is ours," they say, "and it will be able to work out its own duty." The Goebels are only deluding themselves.

Gen. Taylor is making such another glorious canvass for election as no party leader in the state ever approached. His sound and logical speeches, his fine showing of state and national matters, his education of the party's strong platform, his own clear record, manner of speech, his own character and the faith of the public are winning for him the assurance of a strong vote and a safe majority. Taylorism is good things to the people and Goebellism a direct of destruction through robbery in all places.

The Democratic Philadelphia Times does not seem to have great faith in the sagacity of its party. It says that he "Democrats have no more chance to elect Bryan president in 1900 than they have to make a railway journey to the moon." There is just one way, he thinks, in which the Democrats might elect the next president, and that is to nominate Admiral Dewey with a southern name like Wheeler or Lee for vice president; but there is just one chance in a million that the Democrats will have sense enough to do it.

The city council of Paducah was invited by the mayor of Cairo to attend the street fair the evening and be guests of honor of the Cairo council. The Paducah council accepted the invitation and so notified the Cairo council at Cairo. The Cairo council then appropriated $250 to assist in entertaining the Paducah officials, and this morning three commissioners and the city clerk went down to participate in Egyptian hospitality, while the others remained at home, presumably to look after business. It is left to the citizens of Paducah whether or not they are proud of their council. Whether or not the council has treated Cairo right and has done the right thing as representatives of the people of Paducah. It looks very much like a slight, especially as the mayor did not go. Paducah owes Cairo an apology for her council.

CORBETT'S APPOINTMENT.

Attorney Hal Corbett has no definite appointments for the next several days. He is now in conference here Monday in civil session, and a number of cases in which he is interested will claim his attention.

WOUND NOT MORTAL.

FULTON, Ky., Oct. 12.—The body of Free Holton, who shot his business partner at Hickman and then was mortally wounded by jumping into the Mississippi river, has been recovered. Physicians have extracted the bullet from T. J. Eversole's groin and say he will recover.

most selfish, and those who can do most harm are those who have "uncounted" shrewdness, self-reliance, force and aggressiveness." These are very powerful traits, and the man who has these strongly developed can work wonders for evil or for good. The man so built, if not balanced and tempered by better graces, is usually adjudged the most dangerous of men. William Goebel is a dangerous man toward any man or set of men, or anything that stands in the way of his ambition. Such qualities are capable of wrecking anything, and the Democratic party is doomed to destruction because of its "king."

A 75,000,000 CENSUS.

The statistical expert of the department of agriculture, Mr. Henry Barqum, has made four distinct and elaborate calculations regarding the result of the twelfth census, to be begun in June, 1900. The first of these calculations gives the United States a population of 73,418,000, the second, 74,000,000, the third, 75,679,000, the fourth, 74,000,000.

In the latter number of the North American Review, Michael P. Mulhall, England's most famous statistician, estimated that the twelfth census would show our population to be 77,300,000. With these five estimates as a base of calculation, a little figuring produces an average estimate of 75,187,200, or, in round numbers, 75,000,000.

Thus, he is remembered, is our continental population. With the Hawaiian islands, Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippines, the aggregate will not be far from 75,000,000 persons under the stars and stripes.

BRADLEY CONFOUNDS CRITICS.

The Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune, because Wm. O. Bradley, governor of Kentucky, has not seen fit to enter actively into the state campaign by in early speaking tour, it has suited the purposes of the Democrats to regard him as inclined to the Republican ticket. This has not interfered in the least with Governor Bradley's plans. With perfect propriety he has gone about the discharge of his political duties, giving not the slightest concern to the gratuitous interference of those anxious Democrats.

"But the friends of the Governor, the Republicans of Kentucky and the Commercial Tribune, have had no apprehension. This paper has taken occasion to say that at the proper time Governor Bradley would give the ticket the benefit of his talent upon the rostrum, as he was continuously giving it the benefit of his heartiest support. This, not because of any sufficient consideration on the subject from Governor Bradley, but simply because of an intimate knowledge of the quality of Governor Bradley's Republicanism."

"If the badly demoralized, disgraced Goebell Democracy of Kentucky is basing its forlorn hopes of possible victory on the violent assumption that there is dissension within the ranks of the Republican party to that state it is leaning on a badly broken pillar. There has never been the slightest ground for the impudent insult offered by these desperate Democrats to Governor Bradley, and it is not to show them how badly they have mistaken him as a man and a Republican."

"The Republican campaign in Kentucky is being well and winningly conducted by General Taylor and his fellow canvassers. The eloquence of Governor Bradley will add a fitting climax of finished oratory and sound logic to this already excellent symposium of convincing speech-makers."

MR. BRYAN'S PREDICAMENT.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: "On Monday of next week William Jennings Bryan, according to present arrangements, enters upon his oratorical and fight across Kentucky. Mr. Bryan's mission in the lion lion state is the fastidious up of William Jennings Bryan's last demagogic gaudy national year."

"In the light of luminous revelation through the medium of John G. Goebel's recent paper, looking over the campaign and considering the political character most nearly resembling himself and his cause, it is fortunate for Mr. Bryan that he has a full week in which to prepare a self for a proper presentation of his case, and to show the Democratic party that they will be kindly officers of that party's accredited leader."

"For a less versatile man than Mr. Bryan, the situation would seem to possess some tremendous difficulties in consistency. But to his genius the problem will no doubt be as easy as addition. Upon his own side only, Mr. Goebel is clearly a man of no account, and the only person of any account in the party is Mr. Bryan. His only possible defense is the questionable one of a confession and avoidance under a specific plea double dealing. By the evidence of his autobiographical work, he was, at the time, in active opposition, not alone Mr. Bryan's policy, but to Mr. Bryan's presidential aspirations. By his subsequent acts he has admitted more conformity to political expediency, not in the interest of Mr. Bryan or the cause of Democracy, which Mr. Bryan professes as the only fault, but in the interest of his own point of view, it is a plain fact that Mr. Goebel presents to public view—not a present but a look upon a barefaced party from the governor's chair of a self-respecting state."

"Yet it is the thankless task of presenting to party with which he has played fast and loose the duty of that party to support the candidacy of this man, who once sought the overthrow of all for which Mr. Bryan stands, that he is called upon to perform. That he can undertake it is not to the credit either of Mr. Bryan's political discernment or of his personal character. As a man, Mr. Bryan profits himself nothing, even though he should perform the duty of his own personal personality help Mr. Goebel's candidacy, a contingency entirely beside the mark, since Mr. Goebel's defeat is assumed beyond even the say grace of William Jennings Bryan's sacrifice of mankind in so many ways as to cause."

GRAND LODGE CLOSES.

Most of the Visitors Have Returned Home.

The Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., has adjourned and by this influence all the visitors will have returned home. Yesterday afternoon, after the installation of grand officers, they were addressed by the grand master, and responded to by Mr. Chas. P. Hess. By a rising vote a resolution of thanks was extended to the returning grand master for the efficient manner in which he had performed the duties of his office, after which the newly elected grand master announced the various committees for the following year.

Resolution of thanks were then offered by the past grand master, John S. Grant, to the Old Fellows and citizens of Paducah for the many courtesies shown them while here, which were adopted unanimously.

After singing the closing ode the Grand Lodge adjourned. Messrs. Chas. E. Hart and Fred Herborn, two of the most popular and prominent Old Fellows in this city and of the state, were fittingly recognized by the Grand Lodge yesterday, by being put on the finance committee, one of the most important of the Grand Lodge.

About 250 attended the luncheon and smoker given by the local lodges at the Y. M. C. A. building last night, and all highly enjoyed it.

EVIDENCE IN.

South Franklin Murder Case Will Go to the Jury Today.

HENTON, Ky., Oct. 12. The longest drawn out legal battle ever fought in this county closed Tuesday night so far as the evidence is concerned. Two weeks ago yesterday the case of the commonwealth against Noah Franklin, charged with killing Daisy Sullivan in the night of October 30, 1896, was called, and since then several hundred witnesses have been introduced on both sides. The case has attracted wide attention.

The accused was acquitted on the first examination trial. He was arrested again, and on the first trial was given a life sentence in the penitentiary. His attorneys took the case to the court of appeals and a new trial was ordered. This trial came up two weeks ago. Some of the oldest attorneys in Western Kentucky are employed in the case. For the defense Judge W. M. Reed, W. Mike Oliver and ex Attorney General T. C. Moss, and for the state, Commonwealth Attorney Bradley, County Attorney J. C. Love, assisted by Sam H. Crossland and Joseph Harris.

It is thought that the case will go to the jury this evening. The accused was acquitted on the first examination trial. He was arrested again, and on the first trial was given a life sentence in the penitentiary. His attorneys took the case to the court of appeals and a new trial was ordered. This trial came up two weeks ago. Some of the oldest attorneys in Western Kentucky are employed in the case. For the defense Judge W. M. Reed, W. Mike Oliver and ex Attorney General T. C. ### PREACHER WAS LOST.

Mr. Richard Clements, my brother, who was married yesterday at Hentonsville, arrived here last evening, and at home at the residence of Mr. R. E. Ashcraft, on North Fourth street. Rev. W. K. Perrot, of the city, who performed the marriage ceremony, left the West Union church yesterday to drive to Hentonsville, on owing to the rain, and left it to the fact that he took the wrong road, and that he was just at the hour for which the ceremony was set.

ELKS MEET TONIGHT.

The Elks meet tonight in regular session, and a large attendance is urgently requested, every member being desired.

Donnell C. Shalley, editor and proprietor of the New Orleans Evening Item, and C. Harrison Parker, state tax collector and editor of the Louisiana Democratic state campaigner, were here yesterday in New Orleans and each man was seriously ill and badly wounded.

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

gives nature the mild assistance needed for the regulation of the menses. It is of wonderful aid to the girl just entering womanhood, to the wife, and to the woman approaching or going through the turn of life. Women who suffer from any unnatural drain, any bearing-down pains in the lower abdomen, falling or displacement of the womb, can quickly cure their troubles at home, completely away from the eyes of a physician. A few doses taken each month will regulate the menses perfectly.
